Stephen Fenner, of Providence and Frank P. Arnold, Upon Whose Farm the Deposits Are Located, Comprise the Other Members of the Company-Coal Tradé is Affected by the Continued Warm Weather-Other News of Industrial Affairs.

Last summer when it was reported that copper ore in paying quantities had been discovered on the farm in South Canasa owned by Frank P. Arnold, of this city, says the Carbondale Herald, there were many who laughed at the idea and claimed that nothing further would ever be heard of it. Mr. Arnold, however, had faith in the dis-covery, and after several assays of ore removed from the tract had been made, decided that the field would yet prove valuable, and his belief will yet be ful-Scranton capitalists have interested themselves in the discovery, and were satisfied to invest their money in developing the land and extracting the having learned the results of the tests valuable metal. They succeeded in forming a stock company and are now engaged in purchasing machinery to operate on Mr. Arnold's property. Work will be begun in the spring and the stockholders are confident that the venture will prove a source of profit to the company. Among those who are interested in the new mine are Victor Koch, proprietor of the Scanton House; Stephen Fenner, of Fenner & Chappell, Providence, and Plummer S. Page, street car contractor, of Scranton. Mr. Arnold is given a large block of stock in the new company for his land and will receive a royalty on every ton of copper found there.

After prolonged study or the Wilson bill, the Washington Post has come to the conclusion that as a remedy for existing or fancied ills it is decidedly worse than the disease. It exacts ill. antagonizes the income tax and the putting of coal on the free list. Upon this latter point the Post trenchantly

In theory, free fuel is unassailable. In practice, it will be disastrous. To open our scaports to foreign coal at this time is to strike a cruel blow at labor—to complete the parshysis of the railroads, already distreased to the last point of endurance by the operation of the interstate commerce the operation of the interstate commerce act and the experimentation of doctrin sires. The railroads furnish livelihood to inillions of our people. Impoverish them and we precipitate wholesale calamity. Free coal is a beatiful metaphor wherewithin tickle the imagination of the workingman, but free coal at the cost of idleness and famine is too expensive even for the wealthy. There is such a thing as enriching one in theory and at the same time destroying him in fact. The statestmanship that blesses the citizen with a figure of speech but strips him of the means of enjoying realities is like the kospitality of the Harmecide. It will make of every laboring man a Schacabac. What of every laboring man a Schacabac. What the country wants is legislation that will start the wheels of industry and keep them rolling merrily—not legislation that will clog and paralyze them. Better highpriced necessities of life and the means of obtaining them then visions of Utopia in the hovels of the starving poor "High-priced necessities," however, another "beautiful metaphor." Under a protective tariff priors have declined until the purchasing power of a dollar's wage was greater in 1892 than during any preceding year in the past thirty years.

The anthrucite coal trade is duller a present, according to the Stockholder, than for many weeks, not only in this section, but at other points, especially in New England, where the market is reported as stagnant. There is no demand, and even offers to shade prices fail to stimulate trade. Reports from Beston indicate a period of depression for anthracite for the next three months or longer, unless prices are reduced to conform to reductions made in other lines of business. Trade is also very quiet in the west, and the stocks on MEATS—risms 1034.: large 10c.; skinned hams, 10c.; California bams, Sc.; ancuiders 8½c.; dry salted bellius, 9½c.: smoked breakfast bacon, 12c.; fresh pork loins, 9½c.; wyoming pork sausage, 11c.; Wyoming home made sausage, 11c.; Wyoming home made sausage, 11c.; Wyoming home made sausage, 8½c.; our own make: fresh pork shoulders, 7½c.; fresh pigs' feet, 5c.; fresh pigs' heads, 5c.; tresh spare ribs, 8c.; fresh leaf lard, 11c.; fresh kidneys, 8c. doz.; rough sausage meat, 8c.; tongue, 8½c.; plucks, 5c. each; whole hogs, 7½c. Prices here, however, have been fairly well maintained but the feeling amon coal men generally is not sanguine fo their continuance, unless production is kept down to market requirements.

New York, Jan. 5.—Speculation at the stock exchange opened quiet and about steady, but subsequently, owing to a break in Missouri Pacific opened at 20%, rose to 21% and then broke to 15%. The room had it that the creditors of the company intended applying for a receivor, but President Gould and Russell Sage, who control the floating debt, stated positively that there was not a word of truth in the report. Near the close Louisville and Nashville ran off to 41%, and the market left off about steady. Total sales were 199,700 shares Stecks and Bondi shares
